THE STORE.

The firm of LEWIS & CO., New York.

Having been dissolved on the 31st day of December, 1861, J. D. LEWIS, the senior member of the firm, who has had so much to do with the business, has sold his interest to his friends and the partners of the firm, buying intend continuing the original style of doing business, buying and selling the same goods at a small advance for Cash.

LEWIS WILL BUY MORE GOODS NOW

than ever, in consequence of the great reduction in expenses.
In sending the above notice, Mr. LEWIS is happy to inform the public that he has no losses on the old stand, and desires to have his relations with his partners, Mr. Haywood and Mr. L. H. Ludlow, to be reduced to expenses between $10,000 and $10,000 a year, which enables him to buy more goods.

His customers during the past year in a reduction of profits.
